

NOODLES & FISH

You are guaranteed to have a fisherman's tale to tell after angling from a selection of stocked ponds on the edge of a Pocono wilderness. Once you've hooked two, set off on foot to enjoy a guided hike, meandering through Big Pocono State Park. Keep your eyes open for sightings of white-tailed deer, wild turkey, and other wildlife in their natural habitat. When you arrive back at the ponds with your well-earned appetite, enjoy a streamside barbeque of your fresh fish, complete with campfire. The price of Scales and Trails includes the costs of admission to the ponds, pole rentals, bait, fish cleaning, guided hike, picnic, and bottled water.
